

The International Agricultural Education Fellowship Program
Official Application

First Name:

Last Name:

Gender:

Date of Birth:

Address:

City:

State:

Zip Code:

Phone:

Email:

High School:

City/State:

Indicate answers by circling yes or no.

Do you have United States Citizenship?

Yes

Do you or will you have a bachelor's degree in an agriculture-related field by August 1, 2021?

Yes

No

If selected as a finalist, you will be asked to take a physical exam by a medical doctor, and a psychological exam by a licensed psychologist at your own expense. Are you willing to do this?

Yes

No

If selected as a finalist, you will be asked to complete an interview (via Zoom). Are you willing to do this?

Yes

No

The International Agricultural Education Fellowship Program
Official Application

Please provide links to personal online portfolios, and/or your personal LinkedIn page here:

Provide the documents listed below, along with this document to program coordinator Jessica Spence (Jessica.Spence@ag.tamu.edu) on or before February 1, 2021.

- Resume or CV
- Official transcript of undergraduate and/or graduate degree
- Essay explaining
 - How your experiences, past employment, education and life goals will make you the ideal Fellow
 - How you will enhance the IAEFP's mission
 - How this Fellowship will benefit your success, post-experience
- Two letters of reference including reference contact information

Yes

No

Please email this completed document, and all other required application materials to Program Coordinator Jessica Spence (Jessica.Spence@ag.tamu.edu) no later than February 1, 2020, 11:59 p.m. CST. Jessica will send a personal reply indicating she has received all documentation, and inform you if anything is missing. Your application is considered incomplete until receiving said email.

The mission of the International Agriculture Education Fellowship Program is to improve agricultural development in Ghana through the implementation of 4-H strategies in Ghanaian communities through the leadership of IAEFP Fellows, as well as develop leaders in international agriculture through the support, training, and provided experiences to the Fellows.*